

Marcus Jerome Carmichael

May 15, 1974 - February 20, 2023

Marcus J. Carmichael was born May 15, 1974 in Orlando, Florida to parents, Harry and Rosa Carmichael. He attended Orange County Public Schools and graduated from Edgewater High School in Orlando, Florida.

Marcus was a kind, loving people person. There were many acts of kindness he expressed throughout his lifetime. For instance, Marcus helped others find employment and was a friend to those down in spirit.

Marcus was a truck driver. He worked at a paper company and delivered supplies to restaurants and other industries throughout the Central Florida area.

Furthermore, Marcus loved fishing, cooking on the grill, and studying historical figures and events. Later on in life, Marcus found salvation through Jesus Christ and virtually connected with his church. Today, he leaves behind his wife, son, family, and friends who loved him greatly. We say in closing to Marcus, "Rest in peace until the first resurrection, God bless".

Marcus was preceded in death by his father, Harry Carmichael and Grandmother, Addie Mae Cox.

He leaves to cherish his memory, his Wife, Atina Carmichael of Orlando,

Florida; Son, Marcus Carmichael, Jr. of Orlando, Florida; Mother, Rosa Harris (Robert) of Orlando, Florida; Brothers: Carlis Eiland of Winter Springs, Florida, Eric Carmichael of Orlando, Florida, and Derrick Carmichael of Orlando, Florida; Sister, Karen Gentry (Chad) of Franklin, Tennessee; aunts, uncles, cousins, and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
