

Margaret W. Brown

October 27, 1935 - September 11, 2021

Margaret W. Brown, affectionately known as “Sister Margaret”, was born October 27, 1935 in Kingstree, South Carolina to George Woods, Sr. and Alice C. Woods.

Sister Margaret relocated to Callahan, Florida after graduating from high school in South Carolina.

Sister Margaret later married her first husband and moved to Jacksonville, Florida. Together, they owned a 7-Eleven franchise until relocating to Orlando, Florida.

Upon moving to Orlando, Margaret worked at the 7-Eleven Distribution Warehouse until retirement.

The next 37 years, Margaret would help to raise her grandchildren, godchildren and anyone else needing help with their children. During the later years, she learned to use a smart phone so she could keep in touch with her grandchildren by Text and FaceTime.

Sister Margaret loved reading the Bible and studying the Word of God. She attended Bible College on two separate occasions and received both an Associate and Bachelor Degree in Theology.

Sister Margaret was a member of New Beginnings Church in Orlando, Florida under the leadership of Pastors Jonathan and Christina Miller.
