

Margaret Hicks Robinson

August 25, 1949 - April 9, 2019

Margaret Robinson was born in Camphill, Alabama to William Bruce Hicks (deceased) and Denne M. Hicks on August 25, 1949. She was the 8th child of her father and 2nd child of her mother. She attended Edward Bell High School. In 1967, she relocated to Apopka, Florida.

She had two daughters, Samantha Lynette Hanley and Sherry Bonita Robinson, who preceded her in death. After moving to Florida and attending several vocational schools, she became the first black teller to work at Barnett Bank (now known as Bank of America). After her tenure at Barnett Bank, she later became a manager at Majik Market in Apopka, Florida where she worked until she retired.

Margaret gave her life to Christ at an early age and later joined the Pleasant View Baptist church and then Fountain of Life Baptist Church until her health began to fail her.

Margaret is survived by her mother: Dennie Hicks (Apopka, FL) and one grand son: Tarik A. Hanley; Four Brothers: Tommie Hicks (Rose) Apopka, FL; James Stinson (Rochester, NY); Melvin Hicks (St. Pete, FL) & Lyndon J. Hicks (Apopka, FL); Eleven Sisters: Annie Newsome, Brucie Hicks, Elizabeth Sims (Jimmie) Betty Gordon (Maurice) Edith Hicks, Elaine Hicks & Mildred Hicks, (all of Apopka, FL ); Bernice Lewis (Orlando, FL); Linda Avery, Faye Seroyer, & Mary Brown (Camp Hill, AL); a special friend and father of her children: Leroy Robinson; step-daughter: Cynthia Hampton and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
