“ To Marion, Jr. and family,

Only God can heal a broken heart, a saddened soul, or a crowded mind, May God heal and comfort you and may good memories cause you to reflect and smile often. I am not able to get to you during this time of bereavement but please know that you and your family are in my prayers. I have a torn medial meniscus tear at this time and travel is limited. God is already there. Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not to thine own understanding. Acknowledge Him in all thy ways and he will direct thy path.
