Marjorie Lydia Hall was born on February 7, 1954 in Irons Mt. St. Ann Jamaica, to James Hall and Edith Loise Lowe. Marjorie left Jamaica when she was 12 years old to live in London, England with her aunt. She also spent some of her holidays in Birmingham, England with her aunt Agnes. After leaving school Majorie tried her hand at different jobs. After a while, she decided to try another route and emigrated to the USA. She later met Robert Brown Jr. and they united in marriage on May 31, 1986 in New York City. Marjorie finally settled in Florida where she worked for the Postal service. During her time in Florida her key objectives were to help her family, including her brother, Eddie whenever she could. She achieved this by working very hard and remembering her original objectives. A few months ago Eddie needed help and Marjorie was key in making sure Eddie got some assistance. Marjorie was very proud of what she had accomplished when she bought a new house with a pond not far from her plot. The rumor was that the pond contained some nice friendly creatures going by the name of alligators...I told her these creatures were not my favorite, but each to their own. Marjorie and I went on vacation to Jamaica where we enjoyed our homeland. I visited her and we spent a great time together. She will always be in my heart. The Lord saw it fit to call our beloved to her eternal resting place on July 9, 2021. Her departure is truly a deep and personal loss to her family as well as her extended friends and family. Marjorie was preceded in death by her parents: James Hall and Edith Loise Lowe. She leaves to cherish precious memories to her Ex-Husband, Robert Brown Jr.; Sister, Dorreth Hall; Brother, Edward Hall, Nieces: Dean Ann Gordon Harris, Ann Marie Maxwell and Sandra Maxwell Lowers; Nephews: Clive Lewis and Barrington Cooke; Grand Niece, Samantha Lee; and Grand Nephew, Jelani Lowers and a host of other loving relatives and friends. Sleep in peace.
