“ You all knew him as Martin ,,But I always called him Marty Mart ,,He was one of the coolest dudes that I’ve ever met,With a heart of gold,,We use to sit and talk for hours and it was never a dull moment, I remember I was coming over his home to visit him and I got lost by making the wrong turn in the neighborhood and Marty Mart directed me to his home standing outside in the front yard and it was so funny,,Because he said that you can come straight on down,, I see you right there and when I looked up,,Marty Mart was standing in his front yard with the biggest smile on his face and we laughed and I would always say Marty Mart let me find out that you can see and we’re going to have some big trouble in this small town and we’d both just laugh ,,But I said that to say this,That I’m going to miss Marty Mart and I can truly say that he fought a good fight and I’m not going to say bye ,,But I guess we’ll see each other later,,God Bless you Marty MartRIP my brother,,Forever Your brother Stevie Ricks..

“ Martin was one of the nicest , funniest guys I've ever had the pleasure to know. He was able to do any and all task put before him even when he couldn't see . He moved across the room , the yard with smooth precision and I always teased him that he was fooling us all, cause I felt he had total vision .He was an Amazing DJ and a smooth dancer. A really Great guy who loved his family and was the life of the party. He will surely be missed and forever loved. RIP my dear Martin ❤️❤️🙏🙏
