

Mary L. "Baby Gal" Eutsey Williams

August 18, 1958 - January 29, 2024

Mary Eutsey was born on the 18th of August, 1958 in Barbour County Alabama, to parents, Alice Walker and Andrew J. Mays. She attended Groveland Middle and Groveland High School, where she made many long lasting friendships. As the second oldest of eleven children, she became a mother figure to her siblings. With her nourishing spirit and humble heart, she was always there to help family and friends in a time of need.

After high school, she and her family later on, relocated to Orlando, Florida and there she began the journey of motherhood when she met the father of her first daughter, Dradean Eutsey.

A few years later, Mary traveled back to Groveland, Florida, where she continued her career in the citrus industry, and was blessed with her second daughter, Amanda Dykes. She later on met some wonderful women... Evelyn Brown-Belcher, Peggy Brown, Louise Gordon, Lisa Boykin, and many more friends.

She was married to Anthony Williams from 1993 until 2008.

Mary L. Eutsey was renowned for her famous baking and cooking for holidays, birthdays, and any special occasions. She embraced family and friends with unwavering support and becoming a pillar for those with love, strength, and a smile during their time of need.

As we reflect, let us remember her charity and shining love and support. Her legacy of smiling no matter what, and her beautiful bubbly spirit which will always be missed.

Mary was preceded in death by her Mother, Mary Alice Walker; Father, Andrew J. Mays; Brothers, Floyd Eutsey and Johnny C. Rumph.

Today as we gather to celebrate...

Mary L. Eutsey Williams leaves behind two Daughters: Dradean Eutsey of Groveland, Florida and Amanda Dykes of Ocoee, Florida; Grandchildren: Marcus Walker of Clermont, Florida, Dra'Vontye Walker of Groveland, Florida, Marcell Walker of Groveland, Florida, and A'nyiah Williams of Ocoee, Florida.

Beyond immediate family, a void will be felt by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends. Her love, legacy, and humble spirit will forever remain in our hearts and memories to treasure.
