“ I was at the gym this morning and Maurice crossed my mind. It's been at least 20 years since I had seen him and decided to Google his name to see if I could locate him. I was greatly saddened when I found his obituary. I met Maurice through my husband (now ex) John. Maurice was John's best man in our wedding. I have so many great memories of Maurice - bodybuilding shows, Halloween Horror Nights, going to the clubs (in the late 90's), our wedding. I hate that we lost contact and didn't cross paths again. Rest easy dear Maurice. I'll keep your family in my prayers. Much love!

“ Maurice was my landlord Mr. Green's son. We became great friends. He made my ordinary days magical. During a very sad time in my life, he would come pick me up from Apopka High on his motorcycle and take me home. Some days, after finishing my schoolwork and chores, we would ride to the lake in Orlando to just laugh and talk. There was nothing I shared with him that was ever heard again. I will always cherish my love for the Lord for the life of Maurice. It is my prayer for his family and all those that were close to him that God's spirit will comfort them as they mourn. Boundless Blessings.

“ *My first memory of my big brother was when I was working at my first job in fast food many many years ago. As I looked across the lobby, I saw this big, buff gentleman innocently looking at me as if he knew me but he never said anything. Shortly after that I found out that he was one of my handsome older brothers and that he felt that I favored one of my older sister's named Sherise. Since then I've always known him to be a quiet, reserved and soft spoken person. I will miss you dearly big brother, rest well. I love you...💕
