

Maxine Sullivan-Marsh

October 18, 1943 - November 5, 2013

Maxine Sullivan-Marsh was born October 18, 1943 in Oakland, Florida to Lee and Thelma Sullivan. She attended Oakland Elementary School in Oakland and Charles R. Drew High School in Winter Garden, Florida. Her most favorite teacher from high school was Ms. Margaret Potter who remained a very special part of her life until God called her home.

Maxine was united in marriage to Nelson Marsh where she became Maxine Sullivan-Marsh and to them a precious son David was born. Nelson preceded her in death in the year 2000.

Maxine was a Good and Faithful Servant to The Lord and Her Faith, Strength and Beliefs remained strong until The Lord sent his angels to dance at her feet and remove her from the old residence and deliver her to her new home in Heaven.

She leaves to cherish her memory a loving family: Son: David Patrick Marsh of Winter Garden, FL.; Grandsons: Christopher Stafford of St. Petersburg, FL., David Marsh, Jr. of Sanford, FL.; Brother: Ernest Sullivan (Hilda) of Apopka, FL.; Sister: Vivian Sullivan Baker of Orlando, FL.; a host of Nieces, Nephews, Grand Nieces/Nephews and great-grand nieces/nephews; Two Step Nieces of Richmond, Virginia; and a host of other relatives and sorrowing friends.

A special thanks and much love goes out to: The staff from Vitas of Hospice and those who became heartfelt caregivers.

“ *Hello My Love,
I was just thinking about you today and knowing that God is excited to have you there with him in heaven. I hope you are not being mean, talking too much and eating up all their food (<:). I love you much.*
