

Michael A. Butler

September 28, 1967 - July 2, 2025

A TIME TO BE BORN

In Frankfurt, Germany September 28, 1967, God blessed Deacon Samuel Butler, Jr. and Susie Venezuela Butler with their fifth child, Michael Andre Butler, a soul who would grow to touch many lives with his quiet strength and enduring love.

CHILDHOOD & UPBRINGING

His journey of faith began early, nurtured by parents who found their spiritual home at Tangelo Baptist Church. As a child, he embraced Jesus Christ as his Savior and was choirs that praised and glorified the name of the Lord He was adventurous even in his youth. He was an Eagle Scout and later became a Scout Master, which fostered his love for the outdoors.

EDUCATION

He began his formal education at Tangelo Park Elementary, moved on to Walker Middle School, and completed high school at West Orange, where he graduated in 1985.

His natural leadership and strong character earned him the respect of classmates and teachers alike. He delivered the graduation speech, was elected Senior Class President and Homecoming King, and was honored with the Mr. West Orange Warrior award - a testament to the impact he made during his high school years.

Although he received many accolades, what truly set him apart was his genuine love for his school - from the classrooms to the football field, and most especially the people. Teachers, classmates, and staff alike remembered him for his warmth, humility, and the way he made everyone feel seen and valued.

EARLY WORK & MILITARY SERVICE

As a young man, he began working at Long John Silver's Restaurant, showing at an early age a sense of responsibility. He later served in the United States Army as part of the elite 82nd Airborne Division. His sense of duty wasn't limited to the military - it shaped who he was as a man, showing up in how he loved, protected, and cared for others.

“ Cousin Mike--wow...Hadn't seen him in years and thought I would this year. One of my fondest memories (in life) is when I'd traveled to Orlando in 1996, and he hung out with me at Magic Kingdom and Epcot, lol. We were both adults, with no kids, and we had a blast!!! My deepest condolences to the entire Butler family. We love you.
