

Milot Jean-Baptiste

December 30, 1952 - August 30, 2021

Milot Jean-Baptiste was born December 30, 1952 to Loristin Jean-Baptiste and Altagrace Jean-Pierre in Leogane, Haiti. On successfully immigrating to the United States in 1981, he later purchased a home and settled to live in Apopka, Florida on Bluff Lane.

Milot was best described as a dedicated servant of God and was a father who met challenges of each position to which he was called to with an equal amount of commitment and devotion. It was his love of God, and for mankind that was evident in his words and actions. Our father was a man of determination because he was a faithful employee of the Hilton Orlando Buena Vista Palace for over 38 years, supporting his family which included nine children.

The smile Milot shared would brighten up a room because looking past his shortcomings, he always had a good heart. The father that was given to us loved his children dearly, even from a distance. He always wanted the best for them all and showed it in every way he could.

Milot was preceded in death by his father, Loristin Jean-Baptiste; mother, Altagrace Jean-Pierre; sisters: Gladis Jean-Baptiste and Maude JeanBaptiste; and brother, Fritz Jean-Baptiste.
