

Ms. Miracle Keshanna Jarquize Mckenzie

July 1, 1995 - September 22, 2017

Miracle Keshanna Jarquize McKenzie, was born July 1, 1995 in Bartow, Florida. Miracle lived in Winter Haven, Florida for thirteen years with her family.

At the age of eight months, Miracle was walking and speaking, and infatuated with pots and pans. She enjoyed watching her mother cook and of course eating! Miracle stayed in the kitchen. At the age of three, she wanted to be a professional cook. When Miracle turned seven, she became a cheerleader for the Winter Haven Wolvereens.

At the age of eight, Miracle decided to give her life to Christ. She was baptized by Pastor Clifton E. Dollison at First Missionary Baptist Church. There she proceeded to join the Dance and Drama Ministry along with the Youth Choir.

Miracle later moved to Clermont, Florida with her family where she became an actor. Miracle did commercials for Noxzema Cream and Cypress Gardens Kids Balooza.

In 2008, Miracle won a talent contract for doing her favorite role in White Chicks, the movie. She also received a modeling contract with Casablanca Studios.

In 2009, Miracle joined an organization called "Etiquette On Us" founded by her God Mother, Mrs. Jackie Russell. This organization taught young ladies about their choices and self worth.

Miracle attended Lake Minneola High School where she joined the Culinary Team from her freshman year throughout her senior year. She was awarded the position of Head Chef and later given the title Café Manager. Miracle graduated in May of 2015 with her cord, many certifications, awards and other achievements.

Miracle was currently attending Daytona State College. She lived in Leesburg with her family until sunset.

Miracle was preceded in death by her grandmother, Vivian Haywood, her grandfather, Charlie Roberts, her great grandfather, Winston "W.C." Haywood, and her uncle Michael Bellamy.

She leaves to cherish precious memories to: her loving mother, Nathifa Roberts of Leesburg, Florida; brothers, Jawhar Webster of Anchorage, Alaska and Bryeon Moore of Leesburg, Florida; favorite sister, Ambrese Carter of Leesburg, Florida; favorite uncle, Charles "CJ" Roberts of Winter Haven, Florida; god sisters, Jazmesha Rouse of Mascotte, Florida Keninna Graham of Winter Garden, Florida; nephews, Jawhar, Jaremil, Jayden and Damien Webster, all of Anchorage, Alaska; great grandmothers, Eloise Bellamy of Auburndale, Florida and Geneva Smart of Winter Haven, Florida; favorite cousin, Katoya Martin; godparents, AJ and Jackie Russell of Winter Garden, Florida; school mom, Linda Shepherd-Miller (Mama Hawk) of Umatilla, Florida; a host of uncles, aunts, cousins and friends.
