

Mitch Brinson, III

May 26, 1942 - July 8, 2021

Mitch Brinson, III, Son of the late Mr. Mitch and Mrs. Luethel Brinson Jr., was born on May 26, 1942, in Madison, Florida. He answered the Lord's call on Thursday, July 8, 2021. He was a Christian and longtime member of The Life Center Church. Mitch was a long-time resident of the Historic Town of Eatonville, Florida. Until his health declined, he was a dedicated roofer in the Central Florida roofing industry for over forty years, working with the late Johnnie Miller and his best friend, Abe Gallon. He was loved and respected by many. He loves his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren dearly. Mitch was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 57 years: Mrs. Eva Mae Brinson; and two sons: Mr. Paul D. Brinson, Sr., and Mr. Patrick D. Brinson. Left to cherish his loving memories are his beloved brother: Theodore Brinson (Ervinell), Lakeland, Florida; sister: Mary Brinson (Scott), Madison, Florida; grandchildren: Elijah Moye, Paul Brinson, Jr. (Alicia), Princess D. Brinson and Pierre Brinson of Eatonville, Florida; great grandchildren: Tafari Brinson, Adidja Brinson, Jayla Brinson and Heaven Brinson of Eatonville, Florida; Nephews; Luther Brinson of Madison, Florida and Randy Scott (Felisha) of Winter Park, Florida and Nieces: Gloria Brinson and Ella Scott (Davis) of Madison, Florida, Kimberly and Sonya Brinson of Lakeland, Florida; Special Sister-in-law: Nancy Williams (James), Gail Mobley and Willee Brown of Madison, Florida; Special Friends: Abe Gallon of Eatonville, Florida and Christolyn Brown of Altamonte Springs, Florida; and a host of family and friends.

“ *I am very blessed to have spent time with you Mitch!
Through many years working side by side on roofs in this treacherous Florida sun
I learned roofing skills and many other things. You always showed patience, slow to anger, quick to forgive. Rest in peace with our Lord, Mitch, till I see you again my friend!*
