

Monique Marsha Bryan

February 21, 1973 - August 12, 2023

Today, we are here to honor and bid farewell to a remarkable woman, Monique Marsha Bryan. Monique was born on February 21, 1973, in the city of Kingston, Jamaica. She was the cherished daughter of Leila Reed and Stedman Bryan, whom she shared with six other siblings. From an early age, Monique showed incredible zest for life. She brought love and light to all of those around her.

Monique's education began at the Bull Bay Basic School, where she took her first steps towards knowledge and understanding. She then continued her academic journey at the Braeton All Age School, where her thirst for knowledge grew. Eventually, Monique transitioned to Vauxhall Comprehensive High School, where she discovered her passion for netball. The sport ignited a fire within her, she excelled in the game she grew to love. Alongside her siblings, Monique joined the Pepsi United Team, forming an unbreakable bond on and off the court.

In 1988, Monique's life took an extraordinary turn as she embraced motherhood, welcoming a beautiful baby girl, Shanique McNeish, into the world. The joy and love she poured into her daughter's life was immeasurable. Four years later, in 1992, Monique experienced the miracle of motherhood once again as she gave birth to her beloved son Tevin Jennis. Her children wore her pride and joy. mine her me win laughter, love, and a sense of purpose.

Monique's life was further enriched when she became a grandmother of her six grandchildren. The joy and comfort role she played as a grand-mother was immeasurable. She found: great delight in the laughter and smiles of her beloved grandchildren. Their happiness united and lifted her spirit, giving her moments of pure bliss.

In 2011, Monique migrated to the United States of America. Throughout this transition, in 2012 Monique obtained her security license followed by two Home Health Aide Certifications. Her passion was to become a nurse. She pursued this dream by enrolling into the Matrix Educational Nursing Center, but unfortunately, her illness prevented her from completing her studies. However, Monique persisted in doing what she loved, by caring for those around her with boundless compassion.

Monique's faith in the Lord remained unwavering, which she committed her life to the Lord in 2019 at the North Orlando Seventh Day Adventist Church. Monique's church family played a significant role in her life, providing unwavering support and fellowship in the darkest moments of found peace and comfort in her Lord and Savior, which strengthened her faith.
