

Murry Lee Moore, Jr.

July 22, 1976 - November 4, 2023

Murry's journey

God saw the road getting rough and the hill was hard to climb, so he gently closed his loving eyes and whispered softly, "PEACE BE THINE." The weary hours, the days of pain, and the sleepless nights have passed, the ever patient worn out frame has found sweet rest at last. It is very be fitting that we pause here today, to pay tribute to one who loved and lived his life to the fullest...leaving lasting impressions upon the lives he touched.

Murry Lee Moore Jr. affectionately known as "Bally" was born on July 22, 1976, in Homestead Florida, at James Archer Smith Hospital. He was the only son of Mary Ann Adams and stepson of the late Carl Edward Adams and Murry Lee Moore Sr. (Debra).

Education

Murry received his education in Clermont, Florida, and was a graduate of South Lake High School class of 1995. He also attended Edward Waters College in Jacksonville, Florida.

Professional

Murry was a Heavy Equipment Operator for Cemex Materials.

Religion

Murry began his Christian journey at an early age at St. Mark African Methodist Episcopal Church in Clermont, Florida where he was on the usher board and sang in the junior choir.

He departed this life on November 4, 2023, at AdventHealth Hospital in Orlando. Murry was preceded in death by his Stepfather, Carl Edward Adams.
