Naomi Jean Baker, affectionately known as "Nay Nay" to Growing up in a Christian household, Naomi accepted Christ at an early age. She graduated from Osceola High School in 1978 and went on to attend Florida Memorial College in Miami, Florida. She also attended and graduated from Southern University of Orlando, Florida.

Professionally, Naomi worked in the hospitality industry before taking on a job at the Osceola Courthouse. She worked there faithfully for 21 years as a clerk. She also worked as a security guard. Naomi loved the Lord, which was evident in her passionate Board or many yeas until hel an o ar ats. Well-known and respected in the West Side Community, Naomi showed kindness and compassion to everyone she met.

On October 11, 2025, Naomi transitioned from this life on earth and entered into her eternal rest. She will be truly missed, but we find comfort in knowing that she is resting peacefully in the bosom of the Lord, free from sickness and pain. Rest in peace, Nay Nay.

Naomi was preceded in death by her father, Reverend Remer Baker, Sr.; mother, Sylvan Brown Baker; sisters: Jona Baker, Patricia Ann Casey, Lillie Mae Baker Johns; and Joyce Baker; and sister-in-law, Demetria Baker.

Naomi leaves to cherish her precious memories: son, Cornelius Donnell Baker, Sr. (special friend, Taquila Nelson; grandsons: Cornelius Baker, Jr. of Winter Park Florida, and Elijah Castro of Kissimmee, Florida; granddaughters: Tyshira Baker, and Soraya Small of Kissimmee, Florida; sisters: Ruth Baker of Kissimmee, Florida, Tonia Baker (sister/niece) of Kissimmee, Florida; brothers: Reverend Remer Baker, Jr. (Barbara), Charles Baker, Theodore Baker, King Baker, and Everett Baker, all of Kissimmee, Florida; adopted brother, Rondelle Collins; goddaughters: Toccara Lamb and Jamie Stephenson; best friends: Cornelius Brown and Vanessa Stephenson Lampley, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
