

Nathaniel Lockett

May 28, 1960 - January 11, 2023

Nathaniel Lockett was born Orlando, Florida on May 28, 1960, to Mr. and Mrs. Cleotha and Louise Lockett, Sr. Nathaniel attended Orange County Schools and graduated from West Orange High in 1978. Throughout his young adult life, Nathaniel worked in the hospitality industry. Nathaniel changed his career field and became a forklift operator with Shoreline Flooring in 1995 and continued his employment until the company closed in 2016.

In 1995 Nathaniel and Doreen rekindled a former relationship and were married in June 1997 and blended their families from prior marriages and relationships. Nathaniel and Doreen resided in the Orlando area and in 2018 relocated and made their home in Groveland, Florida. Nathaniel was a quiet and passive spirit, who gave so much of himself to helping others. He loved watching Nascar races on Sundays and was a diehard fan of the Dallas Cowboys. Nathaniel was a proud grandpa of six grandchildren whom he adored.

In 2018, Nathaniel re-dedicated his life to Christ and joined The Faith Center International, where he and his wife worshipped under the spiritual leadership of Pastors Alexis and Barry Stephens.

Nathaniel was preceded in death by his mother, Louise Lockett, father, Cleotha Lockett, Sr. and brother Cleotha Lockett Jr.
