

Ola Mae Jordan

February 18, 1952 - October 9, 2022

Ola Mae Jordan was born February 18, 1952 to Alma McClendon Howard and Oree Howard. She attended school in Clermont, Florida.

She had a hand in raising her younger siblings. She was a private woman, but very outgoing and a friendly person; she never met a stranger. She enjoyed reading and doing puzzles in her spare time. She was a devout Jehovah's Witness. Even on days she was feeling her "worst" she would always say "I'm FINE!". She was a single parent that raised her four children with what she had. She had a silent strength that taught her children perseverance. She had a caring and giving spirit who knew no enemies and would always say "Just let God take care of it." Because of her faith we know God is taking care of her.

Ola was preceded in death by her mother: Alma Howard; father: Oree Howard; sisters: Eula Lee Howard and Martha Ann Smith; brother: Hayward Howard; uncle: L.W. McClendon and great grandchild: Khloe Thomas.

She leaves to cherish precious memories to: children: David Howard (Yolanda) of Groveland, Florida, Rosemary Babcock of Daytona Beach, Florida, Janet Ward (Christopher) of Minneola, Florida and Frederick Jordan (Carla) of Dothan, Alabama; siblings: Ollie Croom of Kentucky, Elizabeth Howard of Mississippi, Ella Howard, Lillie Mae Patrick and Sammie Howard, all of Florida; one uncle, Willie B. Mclendon; eight grandchildren; one great grandchild; a host of cousins, other relatives and sorrowing friends.
