“ I remember when Aunt Sis and Uncle Buddy Aunt Katie's husband (RIP) were playfully squabbling with Aunt Sis saying, "Don't you dare say it Buddy!" Uncle Buddy then asking me if I knew Aunt Sis's real name. "No you don't Buddy!!" shrieked Aunt Sis. Well, he did tell me her real name but if she never told you...I won't either! I also remember her nickname for my brother Richard, "lick skillet"!!! The greatest compliment she ever paid me after she and Aunt Flossie (RIP) stayed overnight at my place, was to call me a 'neat nut'!!! You see I was a lazy young girl and my Mom often wondered what kind of home I would keep. Rest in Peace Aunt Sis, you will be missed! Love you!

To my Florida family, know that our hearts are saddened by our inability to get to Aunt Sis' home going celebration due to hurricane Mathew. I thank the Lord for the time we spent with her at our recent family reunion. I love you and thank each of you for all the love you showed her all these years. She will be missed.

To Our Florida Family, The Valentine/Gordon Family haven't the words to express our sorrow upon hearing about the passing of Aunt Sis. She was another women who could wear those wonderful "Sunday go to meeting" hats with such dignity. This 2016 Kwanzaa we will honor her memory doing our Libation Ceremony.
