

Oscar Williams, Jr.

July 31, 1948 - April 3, 2025

Oscar Williams, a devoted husband, beloved father, cherished brother, and loyal friend, peacefully departed this life on April 3, 2025. Born on March 31, 1948, in Damascus, Georgia, Oscar was a man of quiet strength, unwavering dedication, and deep love for his family and community.

Oscar was preceded in death by his loving parents, J.D. and Lula Bell Jackson, and his siblings: Herbert, John J., Connell, Donnell, and Marvin Jackson, as well as sisters Bernice Safford and Anna Vera Jackson.

He leaves behind a legacy of love, laughter, and memories that will forever be cherished by his devoted wife, Maline Robinson Williams, and his children: Darlene Jones (Jack), Jualisa, Leirra, Zymaiah, all of Apopka, Florida, Doretha Melvin of New Jersey, and Cirilo Perez of Apopka, Florida. Oscar's enduring spirit also lives on in his beloved sisters: Joyce Brown of Apopka, Florida and Evelyn Jackson of Orlando, Florida, as well as his dear in-laws: Bernice Fitzgeard and Richard Safford, both of Apopka, Florida.

A hardworking man, Oscar served his community faithfully as a sanitation worker for Waste Management in Apopka, Florida. He was known for his reliability, humble nature, and commitment to doing every job with pride and integrity.

Oscar's love will be remembered and carried on by his grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces, nephews, other extended family and friends. His quiet strength and kind heart touched all who knew him.

Though he has departed this earthly life, Oscar's spirit remains with us—an enduring reminder of love, family, and hard work. He will be deeply missed but never forgotten.
