

Deacon Osmond Lancefield

September 3, 1947 - June 25, 2014

Deacon Osmond Lancefield was born September 3, 1947 in Trelawny, Jamaica to the late Lucille Lancefield Dunkley and the late Clifton Dunkley.

He departed this life on June 25, 2014 after a long illness.

He was baptized at a early age and received the gift of the Holy Ghost in a Pentacostal Church in Jamaica. He moved to the United States of America in 1978. He met his Bride Rose Robinson, they fell in love and united in holy matrimony on March 17, 1979. He became the father to Roger Marshall and one daughter was born in this union, Monica Lancefield Pryor. He became a member of The Apostolic Church of Jesus where he served faithfully as a Deacon until his death. He worked hard to provide for his family in America and extended family in Jamaica and was an employee at Walt Disney World for 24 years. In his past time he loved working in his garden daily. Osmond was a very quite man that loved his family and the Lord. He was a wonderful husband, father, and faithful servant. He was a giving, selfless man that was kind to all.

He leaves to mourn his homegoing: A loving and supportive wife of 35 years, Rose Lancefield, Altamonte Springs, FL; Son, Roger Marshall, Washington; Daughter, Monica Lancefield Pryor, Vero Beach, FL; Son in Law, Marcus Pryor Sr., Vero Beach, FL, 8 Grandchildren, Camille, Abby, Tyler, Roger Jr.,

Samiya, E'mani, Marcus Jr., and Gabriel; 7 brothers, 4 Sisters, 2 Sisters in Law; 2 Brothers in Law; a host of nieces, nephews, and other dear relatives and sadden friends.

SR

That is sweet Sharen. I loved his testimony, you could tell this man was serious about serving God. I'm sure suffered with that sickness, but God knows it was time to let the Deacon rest. RIP brother.
