

Pamela Jean Daniels

June 5, 1970 - December 16, 2020

Pamela Jean Daniels was born June 5, 1970 in Orlando, Florida to parents, Lester Daniels, Sr. and Marilyn Ranson Daniels. She was their only beloved daughter known in a heartfelt way as “Compassionate 6’9”. Pamela attended West Orange High School and Westside Vocational Technical Center where she received her certification in Certified Nursing Assistance. She diligently and zealously loved assisting the elderly. As a caregiver, Pamela exemplified patience, attentiveness, dependability and trustworthiness with an infectious smile for fifteen years of service. Afterward, Pamela was employed five years with Access Lynx as a bus operator. Later, she worked at Walmart in Lawrenceville, Georgia until she became ill. Most of all, Pamela loved and adored her children and grandchildren. They were her world. She wanted nothing more for them than to have a wonderful and productive life. Pamela was a former member of Anointed Ground Church in Oakland, Florida under the leadership of Pastor Joseph E. Reeves and Co-Pastor Patrice Reeves.

Pamela was preceded in death by her Father, Lester Daniels, Sr.; Brother, Brandon T. White. Left to cherish her memory are her loving Mother, Marilyn G. Ranson of Winter Garden, Florida; Daughters: Chakira McClendon of Winter Haven, Florida and Zariah Daniels of Ocoee, Florida; Brothers: Bryan Ranson of Ocoee, Florida, Kindale Hamilton of Clermont, Florida, Lester Daniels, Jr. of Xenia, Ohio and Tyrone Daniels of Elmira, New York; Sister, Shay Henderson of Rahway, New Jersey; Grandchildren: Shaniah McClendon, Jeremiah Jones, Kayden Jones and Antonio Jones, all of Lawrenceville, Georgia; maternal Grandmother, Victoria Ranson of Winter Garden, Florida; special extended Aunt, Reverend Sylvia Greggs (Clifton) of Myrtle Beach, South Carolina; grandparents, aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces, nephews and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
