

Pastor Mildred Ann Loman Eason

March 27, 1943 - June 2, 2019

Within the annals of life as recorded on Saturday, March 27, 1943, Mildred Ann Loman was born. She was the oldest of three children (two daughters and one son) born to Clarence Loman and Ophelia Smith Loman. Mildred's legacy and heritage among those who are sanctified is replete as a fifth-generation COGIC heir. Her roots are deeply embedded in the teachings and standards of holiness which have been passed down from her great-great grandparents up until now to her seventh generation heirs.

From the age of three years old, Mildred was known and loved throughout the community because of her gift of singing in church. In 1954, when Mildred was 11 years old, the Loman Family moved to Orlando—(really it was Lakehart)—near Narcoosee. Education was always important in the Loman household. Daily, Mildred endured the hour-long bus ride to and from Lakehart to Jones High School. She attended and graduated from Jones High School in 1961. After high school, she furthered her education at Florida A&M University where she majored in Fashion Design, Clothing and Textiles. With a 20-year delay in completing her college education, Mildred went back to college. She began working as a permanent substitute teacher in 1967 at both Hungerford and Webster Elementary. While taking courses in the evening, she worked fulltime as the school secretary at Maxey Elementary, Washington Shores Elementary and Eccleston Elementary. When the principals were transferred to a new school, Mildred went with each one. Her determination paid off--she obtained her bachelor's and master's degrees in Early Childhood Education from Rollins College.. Her love was always in the area of teaching “the little ones”—first graders. On several occasions, she received district-wide honors as an “Outstanding Teacher of the Year” by Orange County Public Schools while teaching at Eccleston and Dr. Phillips Elementary Schools. She was an innovative teacher and a strong disciplinarian who challenged her students to excel and never stop pursuing their educational dreams...she stressed always do your best.

In 1989, Mrs. Eason was promoted to a new position as a Recruiter for OCPS's Minority Teacher Program. In 1991, she assumed the position as Manager of the Minority and Women Business Enterprise (MWBE) for the 10th largest school district in the United States. For 17 years, she served as Supervisor of the Women's Department for Florida Central Second Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction. One of Mother Eason's great opportunities was being the keynote speaker during the International Women's Convention in 2015. She was a member the Nu Iota Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. (Maitland).

Since August 2011, she served as Shepherdess/Pastor of Community Fellowship Church of God in Christ, Mother's ministry reached beyond denominational boundaries—her messages and sermons remained the same— “HOLINESS IS RIGHT!.” Mother Eason was a woman of wisdom. Her message to everyone “It's All About Him!” For more than 40 years, she was the Senior Lady Attendant at Brinson's Funeral Home in Orlando. She helped bereaved families through her ministry and professionalism by singing, preaching and showing compassion.

A lifetime of love and precious memories will forever be cherished by her two daughters and son: Cynthia LaJuan Adams, Ida LaVette Eason (Bishop Alva) Harris and Jon LeRod (Rosalind) Eason; Grandchildren: Stephanie R. Adams

(Marcus) Nieto; Jonathan A. (Samantha) Adams, Arnetta D. Harris, Tiffany M. Harris, Jammie Brown, Ashley Harrison, Gerald L. Grier, Jr., Rodriquez D. (Brittany) Brown, Jamarah Eason and Alexandria J. Eason; Great-Grandchildren: Emi-jah Harris, LaCorie Ray, Derald L. Grier, III, Nyomi Grier, Isaiah R, Brown, Amari Brown, Cameron Brown and Baby Adams; Great-Grandchildren: Micah, McKenzie, Malachi and Mia Nieto; Sister (Sissy): Margaret Loman (Johnny) Hester; Brother: Clarence Earl (Linda) Loman; Great Aunt: Carrie Belle Kyles Weeks, Aunts: Ovia Ruth Smith Stephens, Bessie Bowens, Ann L Smith, Latha Lee Loman; Special Nephews and Niece: Shawn G, Loman, Jeighson L. and Jhenese L. Hester; a host of devoted nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews, great-great-nieces and nephews, cousins, Florida Central Second Ecclesiastical Jurisdictional Family, many spiritual daughters and sons and most dear to her heart--the Community Fellowship Church Family. "SAINTS LIVE HOLY...UNTIL WE ALL MEET AGAIN ON THE OTHER SIDE."

“ Ministry brought me to Florida 6 years ago. As I began to network and reach out to ministry leaders in the community, Pastor Eason and I crossed paths. Long story short, because of the stature and nature of her character I can easily say she became a friend and "tree" for me in my journey. Love Always!

The ioss of a loved one is heartbreaking, but we don't sorrow as those that have no hope because to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. “ Some people come into your life for a reason, some for a season, some for a lifetime....Mother/Pastor Mildred Eason...Margaret's sister ... came into my life for all three. She helped me when I was a paraprofessional aspiring to become a teacher at Maxey Elementary School... looking for my first teacher job at Washington Shores and Eccleston Elementary. She was my seamstress for a minute... She was an example of a Godly, holy woman who inspired me and opened doors for me in ministry to cross denominational lines as I was a developing preacher. She was a listening ear, a source of advice as well as one who respected the gifts that God had given to me and allowed me to be a listening ear and consultant for her.

A spiritual pillar and multi-gifted minister and musician, with a great sense of humor....

She always made us (Margaret and me) laugh as she recalled our "May Day" experience at Washington Shores Elementary School.

Earth's loss is heaven's gain...Revelation 14:13 Then I heard a voice from heaven say, "Write this: Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on."

"Yes," says the Spirit, "they will rest from their labor, for their works do follow them."
