“She clothes herself in strength and dignity...she opens her mouth in wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue.... A woman who fears the Lord, shall be praised.”

Proverbs 31.

This is my Polly. Just eight years older, but greatly involved in my personal growth from childhood.

Polly taught me the alphabet/numbers, and to write my name; she taught me hopscotch, to ride my bike and the Lord's Prayer. Polly made the best lemon meringue pie and candied apples. We laughed for hours in person and on the phone as we reminisced the good ole days.

The words from this greeting card describes Pauline Williams Mabry:

A GOOD FRIEND IS HARD TO FIND, SHE'S SUPPORTIVE, COMFORTABLE, ALWAYS LIFTS YOU UP, MAKES YOU LOOK BETTER & IS ALWAYS CLOSE TO YOUR HEART.

She was my best!

“ *Mama,
I can't believe we no longer will talk until the sun comes up. No more kissing your forehead and hearing you giggle as I kiss you under your neck. Remembering how you and I would talk the entire time I commuted back and forth to work. The best part about it all was the phrase "I Love you, Mabe". I Love you Pauline B.*
