Pearl Louise Mason was born to Elijah and Ola Mae Bush on August 13th, 1927, in Zellwood, Florida. She was converted at an early age in the Church of God in Christ, under the leadership of Pastor Marietta Williams and Pastor Minnie L. Reddick until they went home to be with the Lord. She continued to serve faithfully at Open Door Sanctuary of Praise, under the leadership of Pastor Minnie L. Johnson Smith.

Mother Pearl was known for cooking favorite dishes like corn pudding, brown rice, sweet potato pies, and many other wonderful dishes. She also collected an array of roosters and elephants.

Her passion was helping people, especially children of the neighborhood throughout Zellwood and beyond. She shared her gift with many around Central Florida.

Mother was a member of the Zellwood Golden Agers Club and had a gift to read and recite poetry. One of her most favorite quotes by Quincy Jones is...

“Once a task has begun never leave until it’s done, be a labor great or small, do it well or not at all.”

On April 23, 2023, God called Mother Pearl from her earthly labor to eternal rest.
