“ I knew Mr. Percy since 2000, when I started working at the Cabbage Patch in front of his house. He never let an opportunity pass to joke with me, always gave me "a hard time, lied and complained about my job performance to my boss" and then just laughed and laughed!. He accused me of putting my thumb on the scale when I weighed his bananas! He was SO pleased with himself! My husband worked at Publix and also knew Mr. Percy. He was a very positive and inspirational role model. We are so very grateful that he had such a good life, we will miss him....Dave and Janine Rhodes
