

Prophet Charles Wesley Bond

February 8, 1951 - February 20, 2024

Charles Wesley Bond was born on February 8, 1951, in Orlando, Florida to the parents of Otis Henry and Willie Mae Bond. He graduated from the historic Jones High School in Orlando, Florida with the class of 1969 and began to further his education at Valencia Community College.

As a little boy, Charles recognized his responsibilities in the Kingdom of God. At a very young age, he experienced the presence of God in a world wide and acknowledged God's presence. Although innately he recognized the call of God on his life and that he would eventually work for God at that time, he was not ready to fully make that commitment.

Once again, as an adult, Charles experienced a supernatural encounter in God and accepted the call to salvation and was blessed with the gift of prophecy. In answering the call, he became a Prophet. He loved giving God high praise, worship, and adoration. Being a servant of God was his life. Daily he began his day with uninterrupted time of devotion and prayer, which allowed him to walk in the presence of God throughout the day.

Charles His walk with God was precious and very intimate to him. He valued his walk with the Lord wholeheartedly and walked diligently with the Lord every day. He did not compromise his relationship with God for anyone or anything. He would faithfully meditate on the Kingdom of the Lord and dreamed many prophetic dreams at night.

Charles walked in the five-fold ministry and touched the lives of many with his wisdom, knowledge, understanding of the kingdom of God. He walked in a rich anointing to serve and guide others in life and their walk with the the Lord. All of his actions and words were given to him by God so every-one connected to him trusted his words of wisdom and unbiased judgment.

Charles had a big sense of humor, but it never overshadowed his seriousness and faithfulness toward God or the things of God. He had a big, good, kind, and loving heart toward all mankind by interceding for others and giving of himself on a consistent basis. He was indeed the word of God made flesh, and the epitome of the scriptures Psalm 15 and Jeremiah 1:5-7.

The heavy anointing which rested on him showed through the shine on his face, the favor in his life and the blessings he acquired. Charles moved with a purpose for the kingdom of God until his final breath. To God be the glory!

On Tuesday, February 20, 2024, the Lord called His faithful servant to his Heavenly home to enter into eternal rest. He will be greatly missed by everyone whose lives he touched as well as those who knew him as a family member and friend.

Charles Wesley Bond was preceded in death by his Father, Otis Henry Bond; and Mother, Willie Mae Bond.

He is survived by his loving Spouse, Bridgett Bond of Ocoee, Florida; Son, Charles Wesley Bond of Orlando, Florida; Daughters: Rachel Bond of Orlando, Florida, Ashlee Woods (Germaine Woods) of Orlando, Florida, Amanda Bond of Orlando, Florida; Children's Mom, Shirley Taylor-Bond of “ Little did we know, that God was going to call your dad name, In life we loved him, in death we do the same. IT broke our hearts to lose him.He didn't go alone, part of us went with him, the day God called him home. Remember he left us peaceful. His love is still our guide and though we cannot see him, he is always at our side. The family chain is broken and nothing seems the same but as God calls us one by one, one day the chain will link again. I love u guys and I'm here as always
