“ Raishard was my favorite neighbor-someone i could depend on to look out for me and help me when i needed his help. He was my friend. If i needed a hug or encouraging word to uplift my spirit on a bad day, I could count on him. Raishard was sometimes my annoying little brother who would make jokes about my antiquated phone and drive me crazy with his dog Noah, who i eventually learned to love. He was my big brother who would make snide remarks about the hours i was coming home. Raishard was my hero. I admired his efforts to be a good man to his family and his community after he made mistakes in his teens. His absence is most grievous and painful for me. I will miss him dearly. My thoughts and prayers are with his family. Life will not be the same without him, but the God who promises to never leave or forsake us will guide us through this time of mourning.
