“ Hi, My name is Susan Salary. I just learned yesterday of Randy's passing. I worked with him at Hyatt back in the day, I left Hyatt in '99. The last time I saw Randy was several year ago at the Walmart in Haines City. We had a nice conversation and shared a few laughs about the good times at Hyatt. He always called me Susan 'Selfridge'. I don't know why, he just had that nick-name for me. He said it in a certain way that was cute and funny at the same time. He was a nice man and always laughing and talking, he also cooked some mean Greens! Every now and then, even though he didn't work with food, he'd cook up the greens when we had a kitchen lunch and all the kitchen workers would eat. Kind of a special home style meal just for us. Randy was a very nice guy and I liked him a lot.

My condolences and prayers to his wife and children, and the rest of his family.

“ Hello, my name is Carlos, the "baby" youngest brother of Randy Griffin. Like the rest of our family, my heart was deeply saddened by the passing of my brother earlier this morning. What I remember and will forever cherish the most about Randy, was his "quiet presence." He was not a talkative person like his baby brother, but his silent presence spoke volumes to myself and others, because it generally takes more strength to be QUIET than it does to talk. My deepest sympathies are especially with his beautiful, devoted, and "always funny" wife, Sally Griffin. My prayers are also with his daughter, my niece Kimberly Nicole. Praying for you too baby girl!! May the Lord God give our family strength and healing, to process Randy's passing. Philippians 4:6-9
