

Mother Rebecca H. Jackson

March 19, 1923 - August 20, 2017

A Time To Be Born

Rebecca Hayes was born on March 19, 1923 to Catherine Potts and Raymond Hayes in McCrayville, Georgia.

A Time To Live

Rebecca grew up in Havana, Florida. She attended Elementary and High School in Havana, Florida. She accepted Christ at an early age and joined Old Jerusalem Missionary Baptist Church. She sang there in the Potts Family Group and served as an Usher. In her early adult life she moved to Quincy, Florida and became a member of St. Hebron A.M.E. Church where she served many years as a Stewardess.

A Time To Love

Rebecca was a proverbs 31 woman personified. Her life was structured to serve the Almighty God and humanity. She loved her family and was always able to reach out to others. Her heart and home opened every day on love and outstretched arms. Rebecca's husband General called her Becca and would always say, she takes good care of me.

A Time of Relocation

Rebecca and her family moved to Tavares, Florida and joined the Friendship C.M.E. Church. She served for many years as President of the Stewardess

Board and retired President Emeritus after sixty-four years. Served as Vice-President of the Missionary Society, and avid Sunday School Scholar. She was a great Thursday night prayer meeting, bible study prayer warrior that always kept the line open that led to God; If anyone could get a prayer through "she" could. As her health began to fail she still tried to come to church (Her faith in God never was deterred, a strong soldier of Jesus Christ).

A Time of Labor

She rendered unto God what was God's; and unto Caesar what was Caesar's. She labored in the tobacco industry. She tried the domestic life for a while. Finally she found her niche - she merged herself in the field of Culinary Art. (A great cook and a tasty baker).

A Time To Mourn

Rebecca was preceded in death by her parents, Raymond Hayes and Catherine Potts; four brothers, three sisters, one grandson, her husband, Willie Youmans and her husband General Jackson, Jr. (46) years.

She leaves to cherish precious memories: daughters, Reverend LéVerk Youmans, Mary Louise Watkins; son, Reverend Charles G. Youmans, Sr.; son/grandson, Reverend Michael J. Watkins/Kim, grandchildren, Thomasita Youmans-Palmer/Larry, Mary L. Watkins, Kelvin Watkins, Shenika Dilworth/Sheldon, Charles G. Youmans, Jr./Braynana, June Lockhart, Yolanda Youmans; twelve great grandchildren; nine great, great grands; one great, great, great grand; one sister, Zealine Youmans; one sister-in-law, Lucinda Hayes; a host of nieces, nephews; Godchildren, Reverend Thomas Connelly, Pamela Williams, Khamila Watson, Carolyn Mitchell; extended family; Friendship C.M.E. Church Family; children of Mary Jacobs Youmans; a host of spiritual and love children and loving friends.
