

Reginald E. Dunston

June 11, 1957 - May 5, 2019

Reginald E. Dunston was born on June 11, 1957 in Apopka, Florida.

At a young age, he developed a love for ministry and music. At the age of nineteen, he accepted the Jesus as his personal Lord and Savior and there was no turning back. He went on to bible college in South Dakota and received his bachelor's degree.

A gifted musician, Reginald's vision was to incorporate music and the gospel for the ministry of God's word. In February, 1999 Agape Word Church was founded under his leadership. It was his desire to reach people through ministry and music world wide.

Pastor Reginald Dunston wanted the unconditional love of God to be shared with everyone through evangelism, prison ministry, halfway houses, feeding the poor, etc.

Pastor Dunston's ministry has touched countless lives even until the day God called him home, May 5, 2019.

Today, we lay to rest a great Man of God whose love was above measure. Preaching the word was his love and passion. He represented Christ with love, understanding and conviction. Pastor Reginald Dunston was the epitome of Agape Love and the Gospel. "A great Pastor, a great Leader, a great Friend. Let us keep the legacy of Pastor Reginald E. Dunston alive by showing unconditional love toward one another, "AGAPE LOVE". ~John 15:9~ "Just as the Father has loved me, I have also loved you. Abide in my love".
