“ When I first moved to the neighborhood, walking my dog, Reggie was the first person to realize I'm from Trinidad when he heard me talking to the dog. From there on we got to know Him better and better. My lawn when we bought the house was almost gone an his knowledge an helpfulness my lawn came back. As my neighbor loads of respect to him an to his family our deepest condolences.

“ For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord. Romans 8: 38,39.

Our Condolences, Ambassadors

“ I will remember Reginald as a friendly and caring neighbor. He always had a hello or words of conversation in passing. I remember the times I've been working in my yard and Reggie would always give me advice on how to improve the appearance of my lawn or growth of my scrubs. He knew my knowledge was very limited in caring for plants and that I was not particularly interested in the growing phase, only the end results of having a visibly appealing yard. Therefore, he continually encouraged me to keep up the care because it would yield the results I wanted. He was an awesome landscaper! Whenever Reggie saw my grandson in the yard, he would come over and talk with him about different things, mostly about growing up and his responsibilities as a man. My grandson and I will miss him!

“ Reggie never let anything or anyone hold him back from doing what he set his mind on. Reggie use to watch me play chess on the block with the other guys. There were two guys on the block who said, he would never be able to beat them. Reggie ask me to teach him the game, and so I did. Every evening he would challenge these two guys and lost. Then one evening he destroyed both of them. They had a new respect for him now. After those games he won, he came back to me and said, you are next Leslie (with love). And so started our battles together. He destroyed me too, just how I taught him.(no mercy).
I have many more stories with Reggie and I; Those two guys said he could never drive that blue truck we had on the block. He prove them wrong again. He drove from carenage to Belmont, everyone was shock, except me. I was so proud of him that day. He did everything correct. Again they had new respect for him. He had more confidence in me than I had in myself. I am older than him but he was my big brother and I love him very much!!!!!!
He will always be in my heart!!!!!!

I am older that Reggie, but we had conversations like two grown persons. He was very respectful to everyone. I will always remember his great smile and laugh. May your transition be welcoming by our creator.
