“ Today is a sad day to hear about Ricky. We never know when God will call and I reckon it's never a good time. I want to share the love of the game. Ricky from my early memories growing up in Richmond Heights had a very special gift. Yes he was alyss polite and joyful for most that I can recollect. He carried this confident yet charismatic sense that he could do just about anything. To this point I remember playing basketball with him and his brother Maverick. Ricky the ad a talent on the court that mirrored Magic Johnson, and Earl the Pearl. He was simply a genius with the ball. I don't think I ever shared that with him. I hope this brings pleasant thoughts to his family and friends. I considered him a true friend and neighbor.
