

Rita Agatha Claxton

February 27, 1945 - October 18, 2018

Rita Agatha Claxton was born in Basseterre, St. Kitts on February 27, 1945. She was the fourth child out of nine born to Samuel and Janiefy Benjamin. She was a teacher at Basseterre Boys School for five years.

Rita married the love of her life, Myron Claxton on December 15, 1966.

Rita relocated to St. Thomas Virgin Islands in 1968 and worked as an Executive Secretary for Willoughby Lewis' Insurance.

The family, Myron, Rita, Nigel, Don, and Lisa relocated for the last time to Orlando, Florida in September 1979. Rita started working for the Orange County Government, November 5, 1979 with the Department of Community Affairs. In 1984, Rita was transferred to Public Utilities as an Executive Secretary where she retired from Orange County Government after 25 years.

After retirement she stayed active in her roles as a wife, sister, mother, grandmother, and friend. Her hobbies included traveling via cruises with her husband, puzzles, and reading. Rita was happiest when her home was filled with friends and family. Her true passion was her grandkids.

Her love for everyone she touched will continue to grow.
