

Robin Talaya Pollock

May 5, 1963 - July 17, 2024

Robin Talaya Pollock was born May 5, 1963 in Apopka, Florida to Walter R. Pollock, Sr. and Bernice Pollock. She attended and graduated from Apopka High School

Robin was a true public servant. She provided customer service for many organizations to include Sprint and Advent Health.

Robin was very sweet and a woman of faith and great character. Even in her sickness, she was an encouragement to her family and friends. Robin loved to serve her family and friends. Many of them depended on her for her delicious macaroni and cheese and red velvet cake. She also found great joy in gardening and became affectionately known as “Green Thumb”.

Robin joined Glad Tiding Church, bringing and sharing love to all she encountered. She often boasted about the love she received from Pastor Judah and the Glad Tidings congregation.

She was preceded in death by her Father, Walter R. Pollock, Sr.; Mother, Bernice Pollock; and Brother, Walter R. Pollock, Jr.

Left to cherish her memory: Stepmother, Eulean Pollock of Mobile, Alabama; Sister, Veronder Jones (Jerry) of Fayetteville, Georgia; Stepbrother, Jay Oliver

(Daphne) of Pensacola, Florida; Nephew Jared Jones of Fayetteville, Georgia; Niece, Yasha Jones of Fayetteville, Georgia; Dedicated Cousins: Allison Ashley, Wanda Ashley, Sandra Ashley, and Helena Pollock-Ricks; Special Uncles: Campbell Ashley of Tavares, Florida and Elcee Pollock (Josephine) of Zellwood, Florida; Special Aunts: Mary Pollock of Chicago, Illinois and Lodine Pollock Jenkins of Miami, Florida; Godson, Jarrod Wynn of Apopka, Florida; God-daughter, Sky Blue of Orlando, Florida; Special Friends: Gail Henderson and Latonya McMiller, both of Apopka, Florida; and a host of other loving relatives and friends.
