

Mr. Rogie Lee July

September 14, 1949 - April 3, 2015

Rogie (Roy) Lee July was born on September 14, 1949 to Benjamin Franklin July, Jr. and Isabella

Robbins of Little River, Alabama (Blacksher Community of North Baldwin County.) He was married on June 21, 1971 to Earline Miller and was blessed with four daughters and one grandson. After leaving Alabama in his early twenties, Roy lived in Denver, Colorado for nine years and worked at Gates Rubber Company before moving to Florida where he worked as a truck driver for North American Vanlines and National Freight.

His interests include: working with his hands and fixing things, helping his daughters with homework, and cooking. His favorite dishes to make were macaroni and cheese and banana pudding. He loved being with his family and reading the Bible.

The Lord in His infinite wisdom deemed it timely on Friday, April 3, 2015 to remove one of the links from our family chain. In comfort of his home in Apopka, Florida, surrounded by loving family, the Lord called our beloved Rogie to his eternal resting place. His departure is a deep and personal loss to his family and friends and he will be greatly missed by them all.

Rogie was preceded in death by his parents, Benjamin Franklin July, Jr. and Isabella Robbins, sisters, Everlene July and Fannie Martha July.

He leaves behind his loving wife: Earline July of Apopka, Florida; four daughters: Elaina Vernetta July of Apopka, Florida, Katrina Michelle July-Moore of Celebration, Florida, Serena Rachelle July of Apopka, Florida, and Sierra Nicole July of Apopka, Florida; one grandson: Mathias Alexander Moore of Celebration, Florida; siblings: Robert Julye (Freda) of Uriah, Alabama, John Julye (Lula) of Aurora, Colorado, Carrie James (Samuel) of Banks, Alabama, William July (Helen) of Denver, Colorado, as well as many other cherished family members and friends.
