

Rohmell Ann Vereen

September 15, 1937 - November 2, 2025

Rohmell Ann Vereen, the oldest child of Cynthia McDuffie and Roosevelt Walker, was born on September 15, 1937 in Fitzgerald, Georgia. She was affectionately called Ann. She departed this life peacefully at ORMC, Orlando, Florida on November 2, 2025.

Rohmell attended Monitor Elementary School and Monitor High School. She graduated in 1956 from Monitor High School in Fitzgerald, Georgia. She went to school to get her CNA license. After obtaining her CNA license, she worked at Winter Park Tower. After several years, she began working for Orange County Public School (OCPS) as a Teacher Assistant. She worked for OPS for 30 years and retired while working at Magnolia School.

Rohmell met her husband John B. Vereen and to this union two children were born, Michelle and Kirby Vereen. Rohmell loved to sing and her favorite pass time was cooking.

On March 3, 1996, Rohmell joined the Macedonia Church family, along with her husband, Deacon John B. Vereen. As a Deaconess, she often led devotion with her rendition of "Sit Down Servant and Rest A Little While." Her servant spirit enabled her to work diligently in the Donesa Jackson Soup Kitchen. Her m loving kindness and beautiful smile will be missed by all who knew her.

She is preceded in death by her husband Deacon John B. Vereen, daughter Michelle Vereen and son Kirby Vereen, and parents Cynthia McDuffie and Roosevelt Walker.

Left to honor and cherish Rohmell's memories are: Son, Reverend Anthony R. Brown (Kristy) of Royal Palm Beach Florida; Stepdaughter, Vernita Vereen of Orlando, Florida; Stepson, Toronto Vereen of Orlando, Florida; Bonus Son, Leo Tarver; Brother, Andrew Glover (Angie) of Ft. Lauderdale, Florida; Granddaughter, Sharunda Vereen Johnson of Orlando, Florida; Grandson, Quintin Tracy of Royal Palm Beach, Florida; Great Granddaughters, Tamara Johnson (Robert) of Mt. Dora, Florida and Maliyah Buie of Orlando, Florida; Two Great-Great Grand-children, Two God Children, Cheryl Brown and Adrienne McWhite; and a host of sorrowing cousins, nieces, nephews, and other relatives and many friends.

Such a beautiful God-fearing woman whom I will truly miss. She was one of three I called my first church moms. My heartfelt sympathy goes to her family and all who knew and loved her. She has her wings and special assignment from the Lord. Resting peacefully now. Love you dearly Mama Ann 🕊️👼🕊️🕊️🙏
