Ron's life was a testament to who he was as a son, brother, husband, father, grandfather, and uncle. He was a pillar of strength, a provider, and an excellent example of what a man should be.

“ Carolyn, Lee and the rest of our family, I am truly sorry for the loss of Ronald. There are simply too many memories of our growing up and as adults to pick a favorite one. Ronald and I was not only first cousins, but we were Soldier Brothers as well, having served in The US Army and we fought in the same areas of South Vietnam but during a different time period. Although Ron and I did not talk on the phone very often, we did keep in contact by texting each other, several time ever two to three months, to check on each other, and we did manage to meet and share personal time when I traveled from my out of state home to Altamonte Springs. I am going to miss those visits and contacts. I can truly say Ronald was a great human being.
