

Ronnie L. McNish

March 15, 1957 - February 4, 2020

Ronnie Lee McNish was born on March 15, 1957 in Leesburg, Florida to Estell McNish, Sr. and Kathleen Garrett McNish. He received his formal education from Leesburg High School graduating in 1975.

Ronnie had extraordinary love for fast cars, motorcycles and basketball. Ronnie was a true champion bike racer so much so that he purchased a Pontiac Firebird. He worked at George Nahas Oldsmobile in Tavares, Florida. He was truly the best auto and motorcycle detailer in Central Florida. He also worked with the Fair and traveled the United States with them for 10 years. He was one of the biggest jokesters ever. Ronnie never met a stranger and always had a very pleasant personality. He also had a love for one on one basketball and boy could he hoop. He treated his friends like family never making a difference between the two.

He was preceded in death by his father, Estell McNish, Sr., mother, Kathleen McNish, brother, Estell McNish, Jr. "Cowboy".

Ronnie leaves to cherish his precious memories to: children; Ronnie Levon McNish of Tavares, Florida, Elliot Jones of Leesburg, Florida and Rico Flores of Leesburg, Florida; brothers; Albert McNish of Rochester, New York and Nelson (Hop) McNish of Leesburg, Florida; grandchildren; Michael McNish, Aaliyah McNish, Chloe McNish, Jaelyn McNish, Elexia Jones, Elliot Jones, Jr.,

Elvin Jones; great-grandchildren; Jace Townsend, Martavious Flores, Natoya Flores, Dalani Flores; a special friend; Paula Calvin; a host of other relatives, and sorrowing friends.
