

Rosa S. Dickens

August 11, 1945 - February 4, 2023

Rosa L. Sills Dickens, was born on August 11, 1945 in Orlando, Florida to the late Mr. Otis Sills, Sr. and Mrs. Viola Robinson Sills.

She was a graduate of Jones High School Orlando, Florida in the Class of 1964. Upon graduation she married Harry H. Dickens on August 11, 1964 and from that union they had three children Wanda, Sabrina, and Dwayne.

She became a believer in Jesus Christ at an early age and in her young adult years joined Bethel Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Dr. Rollie Murray. She would later join West Orlando Christian Center COGIC under the leadership of Superintendent Byron D. Stevenson.

She was a State of Florida Government Retiree in the Comptroller Division.

She was a loving single mother, grandmother, great grandmother, and the love was extended and shared with her extensive family, neighbors, friends, and co-workers. She enjoyed spending quality time with her family and friends. She always looked forward to movie night with her granddaughters and goddaughter. Her home was always open and welcome to many. She was well known for her cooking, baking, and dinner events and she was very fond of cheetah print fashion.

Rosa was preceded in eternal rest by parents Otis Sills, Sr. and Viola Robinson Sills; brothers, Alfonso Dixon, Ofis Sills, Jr., Felton Dixon, Jr., and sister, Catherine Robinson.

She leaves to cherish daughters, Wanda L. James (Dennis), Sabrina L. Grays (Kenny, Special Friend) and son, Dwayne D. Dickens (Melanie); Grandchildren, Dennis (Whitney), Joshua (Jamila), Markesha (Kramar, Special Friend), Drake, MarKeese, and Madison; Great Grandchildren, Gavin, McKenna, Morgan, Veronica, Dawson, and Avery; Sister, Laura Blake (Andrew); a host of special nieces, nephews, cousins, goddaughters, god granddaughter, other relatives, and sorrowing friends.
