

Rosa Teressa Harris

February 27, 1948 - February 22, 2026

Rosa Teressa Harris was born on February 27, 1948 in Kissimmee, Florida to parents William Harleston Lesesne and Addie Mae Stewart. She graduated from Kissimmee High School in Kissimmee, Florida. After graduating from Kissimmee High School, Rosa began her career in banking. She spent several years in this industry until she shifted her focus to ministry work. Throughout her life, she found joy in cooking, baking, spending time with her family, and serving others through outreach ministry. Rosa served with the House of Prayer Ministry under the late Evangelist Mae Wright. She also participated in both street and jail ministries. Following her time with the House of Prayer, the Lord led Rosa into a 35 year career in health insurance with CNA. Through this position, she formed lifelong friendships and encouraged others to do their best. Rosa was a loving wife and mother in addition to mentoring and supporting other women in Christ. She will be sadly missed, but never forgotten. Her legacy will continue through all of us.

She is preceded in death by: her father, William H. Lesesne; mother, Addie Mae Stewart; son, Marcus J. Carmichael; brother, Coleman Cox; and sister, Ethel Cox.

Rosa Teressa Harris is survived by: her loving husband, Robert W. Harris of Altamonte Springs, Florida; son, Carlis L. Eiland (Cindy) of Winter Springs, Florida; daughter, Karen Harris-Gentry (Chad) of Spring Hill, Tennessee; siblings, Juanita Lesesne of Stone Mountain, Georgia, Sheila Casey (George) of Columbus, Georgia, and Wanda Hogan (Larry) of Orlando, Florida; grandchildren, Alexis Eiland, Andrew Eiland, and Marcus Carmichael, Jr.; nieces, Lanetia Jackson, Eulonda Black, Dionne Brown, Nicole Black, Regina Black, Selena Wimberly, and Sheri Thomas, Latonzya Burney; nephews, Fitz Dryer, Richard Borne, Jonathan Lesesne, JP Hogan, Reginald Casey, George Casey, Jr., Eric Casey, and Ricardo Burney; cousin, Harold Stallworth; and a host of other relatives and friends.
