“Ruby Pearson, aka for me was, “Superwoman”!

She was just that...a SUPER WOMAN! She was such a loving, caring mother, grandmother, aunt, cousin, and friend to a multitude of people. She always wore that beautiful million dollar smile on her face, just as you see on the picture!

Superwoman was so much like a mother figure in my life. I loved her dearly; had a lot of fun and laughter with her; and will always cherish the abundance of fond memories that I have of her. She always treated me not just like a cousin, but she treated me like I was one of her daughters. Every family gathering or event, Superwoman always included me. We talked frequently on the phone. I would visit her whenever I had an opportunity because I really enjoyed being with her.

Now, no one could ever replace the love that I received from my biological mother, as I was truly blessed with an awesome mother, Ruby Mae Ball. But, God decided to call my mother home when I was only 23 years old. However, he graciously placed the next “best” person to fill the void in my life...another “Ruby”...another gem...Ruby Marie Dixon Pearson.

God knew exactly what I needed and what was best for me. He took one Ruby but gave me another one. What a blessing...2 beautiful “rubies” in my lifetime! I thank God and appreciate the time that he afforded me to have the opportunity to love and receive love from 2 “Ruby’s” that were both amazing gems; and ironically, both had birthdays in the month of May.

Last, but surely not least...Superwoman loved her children, grand children, and family. I must add...Superwoman’s children: Erick, Derek, Darlene, Robert, and Patrice were absolutely amazing in how they loved, respected, and took care of their mother every day. It was such a beautiful exchange of love to witness between a mother and her children, all of the time.

While there are many, many more attributes that are noteworthy about Superwoman, let me just end with this...

Sincerely, in my mind and heart, Superwoman is our loss, here on earth but now, heaven's gain!

*Love,
Laretta*
