

Mrs. Ruby Mae Wiley

March 26, 1932 - August 26, 2016

Ruby Mae Fair Wiley was born on March 26, 1932 to M. A. and Paul Fair in Honorville, Alabama. She was educated in Honorville, Alabama. Ruby was a very responsible child and helped raise her other brothers, sisters, nieces and nephews. She loved to cook so much, her cooking turned into a restaurant, Ruby's Home Cooking in Apopka.

She married Ed Wiley in her twenties and became a homemaker taking care of her family, working the "muck" and working in the graveyard juke. A committed woman of faith, Ruby was a member of the Fountain of Life where she extended her gifts to the kitchen ministry as well as serving as a Trustee. Ruby was not only a matriarch of her family, she was like a mother to every needy child.

On August 26, 2016 Ruby closed her eyes in mortal sleep. She was preceded in death by her husband, Ed Wiley; her mother and father, M.A. and Paul Fair; Brothers: Tommy, Cicero, H. D., J. D., Neal, David, and Paul; Four sisters: Katie Lou, Annie Mae, Harriet, and Mary Lee.

She leaves to cherish her memory the following loved ones: three children, Ed Wiley, Jr., June Milton (Maurice) and Debra Wiley (Charles) all of Apopka; six grandchildren: Horace (Altarsha), Shantinette (Tom), Marlin, Berthel, Krystal (Mo), Wallace; eleven great-grandchildren: Airiayana, Dashana, Jarrett, Jaylan, Thomas, Shantomia, Semaj, Kierra, Asia, Jammie, Lyric; three great great grandchildren: Caden, Jaden, Za'miyya; two god daughters, Emma, and Deloris; two special nieces, Pauline and Cynthia; two sisters-in-law, Dixie Lee Fair, and Betty Fair; one devoted friend, Ms. Effie Brown; other sorrowing relatives and friends.

She will be deeply missed.

“ Sending my heartfelt condolences warmly to her family. She was a mom to me. I will never forget her. I thank my Lord for allowing me to know her..talking with her. .laugher..eat...and to sit up with her at her cafe and home watching the spiritual singers on TV till night time. I wil never forget this woman .
