

Mr. Samuel Trimble, Jr.

November 17, 1954 - June 27, 2018

Samuel Trimble, Jr. was born on November 17, 1954 to Samuel and Rochelle Trimble in Hamtramck, Michigan the oldest of four children. Samuel attended Atkinson Elementary and was a Pershing High School graduate in Detroit Michigan. Samuel Trimble, Jr. started work at Chrysler Corporation at the age of 18 there he was known as “Boh Hammer.”

He worked hard to support his family and after 30 years of service he retired in 2003.

Samuel Trimble, Jr. married Joyce Piner who was his high school sweethearts. Through this union three children were born: Quantane LaShan, Darius DeShan, and Samuel better known as “BJ”.

Samuel loved to party; he loved dancing, skating, and yard work. He mastered all these hobbies.

Samuel was baptized in 1993 with his son BJ at Zion Tabernacle in Port Huron, Michigan by Pastor John Tate whom he called his brother. On November 2, 2014, Samuel was baptized again in the name of Jesus at Remnant Ministries by his loving Pastor Pamela J. Bowers and son, Elder Darius Trimble.

Samuel peacefully slipped away on June 27, 2018 at 11:30am, where the Lord, his parents, son, BJ, Sister Ramona (Squirrel) and who he called his brother Dewey, welcomed him to a better place of no more suffering. All though he will be missed here, God said your suffering is over.
