Our father, Samuel Lee Williams, Sr. was born on September 17, 1942 in Tuskegee, Alabama. He lost both of his parents at an early age. After living in Alabama and Ohio during his childhood, he moved to Apopka, Florida to be near his brother, Dewitt Williams. Our father graduated from Phyllis Wheatley High School, joined the United States Air Force (1962-1968), was a member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. and obtained a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from Bethune-Cookman College. He married and had two children, Lovevia (Regina) Williams and Samuel L. Williams, Jr. He worked for NCR Corporation and Datamax Corporation before retiring. Our dad was also affectionately known as 'Sam the Man'. His cool demeanor, sharp manner of dress and kangol hats were legendary. To those who knew and loved him, he will forever be missed.

He leaves to cherish his memories: his loving children, Lovevia R. Williams of Orlando, Florida and Major Samuel L. Williams, Jr. of San Antonio, Texas; two brothers, Eugene Williams (deceased), Cleveland, Ohio; Dewitt Williams (deceased), Apopka, Florida; one sister, Mary Sapp of Geneva, New York; one brother-in-law, MSG Kenneth Thompson, Ret., U.S. Army (Voncille) of Orlando, Florida; two sisters-in-law, Patricia Brown (Charles) and Connie Zanders, both of Orlando, Florida; best friend, Mr. Charles White (Evelyn) of Orlando, Florida; a host of nephews, nieces, and sorrowing friends.

“ It has been an honor to work with Sam over the many years at Datamax-O'Neil. He was a true professional. More important he was a great role model for everyone he touched. A great man.
