“ I still haven't fully processed the fact that he is gone. One of the best people I knew. Very calm but once he is comfortable in your presence, he opens up. Perhaps one of the most naturally gifted people intellectually. I've attached a polaroid photo of Sean, Myself, and a friend of ours from high-school. Since this photo was taken and handed to me, it has always either been in my wallet or at the back of my phone case. Much like Sean, this picture will never leave my side. Rest in peace my bro and know that I'm missing you.

Now the labourer's task is over. Now the battle-day is past. Now upon the farther shore lands the voyager at last. Father, in thy gracious keeping leave we now. Thy servant sleeping.

Upon hearing of your sudden death the tears of sorrow flowed in my eyes. As if I was dreaming on my birthday. It is painful moment for us all that a vacuum is created in our hearts. Who will call me Auntie Wohyewo hmmm. Sean 🌹🥹 Demrifa due due till we meet again. Rest peacefully in the arms of God. From Auntie Rosebud and family.

“ He was a very promising and hardworking person. Very intelligent and quiet. He was so cool and unassuming yet so talented. I remember how calm he was in stressful situations. I am honoured to have known him and grateful to God for the opportunity that our paths crossed. May the good Lord comfort the family and bring them divine peace. Grant Him eternal rest of God. Sean God be with you till we meet again.
