

Selma Jean Brunson

April 13, 1955 - November 19, 2018

Selma Jean Brunson was born on April 13, 1955, in Miami, Florida to Willie and Lillie Mae McCall. She was raised in a family that truly knew, understood and embraced the love of family. She accepted Christ at an early age in Miami, Florida.

She was united in Holy Matrimony to Stanley Brunson. Soon after the marriage they relocated to Orlando, Florida. Upon their arrival to Orlando she began working in the restaurant industry. One of her favorite places of employment was working for Red's Barbeque.

Selma and Stanley's pride and joy was their daughter, Chandra Howard.

On Monday, November 19th God saw Selma was tired and called her home to rest.

Selma was preceded in death by her parents: Willie and Lillie Mae McCall and several of her siblings. We are blessed to have had her for sixty three years. She is gone but will never be forgotten. May God's peace be with you till we meet again.
