“ Sharon and I was childhood friends. We laugh together, cried together, got in trouble together. had fun together, but through it all we learn to love together. She went from being my neighbor to being one of my best friends. We would talk for hours sometimes about nothing. Then there was those moments when life threw us curves, and made us uncertain. She could tell me about myself without making the situation worse. She had a God given gift to be nurturing, loving, comforting, understanding, and patient, I will miss my dear friend. Sharon have, and always will be apart of my heart. Even now I hear her telling us to stay strong. I know she's with God smiling, happier than anything we could image. Sharon has her wings. I'm thankful for all the years God granted us. For all the love Sharon put into the people she loved, and cared for. We are so blessed to know the kind of love Sharon gave. To Sharon Daughters, Sisters, Brothers, Grand Children, Nieces, Nephews, Cousins, Friends, Etc. Sharon memories live on in us. We each was touch by her kindness ,and her love, We shared a special place in her heart. We was touched by one of God's angel in our life time. Awesome! Awesome! Blessed!

“ So I haven't been able to get my words in order to write. Sharon was one of a kind. So giving and caring. I worked with her 20 years ago on midnights in the comm center and we remained friends. She's the only person that was allowed to call me Hopeless. Sending prayers for the family especially her girls. Rest easy my friend. You've earned your wings.

“ Sharon was a true Angel. She had the voice that would calm any situation. Her way with students who were her patients is something I admired and strived to be. She will truly be missed and I will never forget her beautiful voice praying for me and giving me advice. Rest well, my sweet friend. Heaven has gained such a beautiful Angel!

Sharon, working with you while at Wicklow was something I will never forget. You were always there for me with such a calming spirit. When we first met, we clicked right away. You prayed for me, made me do my inhale exhale, lol before I would lose it and tell someone off. Always kept me grounded, and I will always love you for that! You invited me over to play that game you and your family and friends played. I forget the name of it, but I just enjoyed the close knit loving ways that you all had! I hadn't seen or talked to you, but I have always thought about you after you left Wicklow. I will miss you, but I know that you are in a better place where there is no more suffering or pain. S.I.P my friend..you will always be in my heart. Love, Joanne
