

Sharon D. Johnson

August 7, 1967 - January 18, 2024

Sharon D. Johnson, affectionately known as “Mummy Yummy”, was born on August 7, 1967 in Apopka, Florida to parents, Alonzo Montgomery and Gloria D. Holley. She attended and graduated as an Apopka Blue Darter, from Apopka High School.

Sharon was a bright and beautiful woman who had a classy taste for style. She was quite fashionable to say the least. Her smile, would lighten a room as she walked in. She carried a brightness just like her favorite flower, the sun flower.

Sharon had a tremendous love for family. She enjoyed spending quality time with her children and grandchildren. She also had a big heart with a deep and caring love for both her family and friends.

She is preceded in death by her Brother, Sidney Johnson, Sr.

Sharon is survived by her Children: Demarkus Cherisson-Johnson (Mercedes), Raymond Cherisson, Ciara Johnson-Carranza (Isac), and Larry Johnson; Father, Alonzo Montgomery; Mother, Gloria D. Holley; Brothers: Samuel Johnson, Jr., Larry Johnson, and Frank Johnson; Sisters: Barbara Gibbs and Tanya

Clark (Ricky); Aunts: Geraldine Murry (Carl), Luzera Dennison (Gerry), Wylene Harris, and Elizabeth Bryant (Alex); Grandchildren: Aaliyah Carranza, Isaiah Carranza, Ivan Carranza, Jimeri Knight Cherisson, Demarkus Cherisson, Jr., Demetric Cherisson, and De'mir Cherisson; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins, other loving relatives and friends.

Mummy, I am missing you already and you have been gone just a few days. There is no one to tell me of your mom funny antics or something she said and we would share a laugh together. It really do hurt terribly but I know God and knowing Him makes it bearable. Love you Sharon forever
