“ I was a childhood friend of Sharon in the Bronx, NY. We lived one building over from each other. We were ambitious children who once tried to get a group together for a performance at the famed Apollo theater. Also, we once were in a modeling group. Sharon and I shared a lot of childhood memories that were unique in nature. We were over each other's house almost everyday. My family left the neighborhood due to a fire in our home. I later went on to graduate from universities and travel throughout the world. It would have been grand to have reconnected with Sharon throughout the world or just anywhere. My prayers go out to Ms. Frances and her siblings.

Much love to you all.

Rest in power and peace Sharon.

“ I met Belinda in Rome. Wonderful and unforgettable person, that's why I was looking for news, and I discover that God has called her to himself. I have published and translated a story by Belinda in an important Italian literature magazine. I join, moved, in his memory to the pain of his family.
